

ARIES

Aries is interested in any activity which looks like pioneering in a new idea, a new technique, place or person, in modern music and painting. Loves bright colors, bold design. An outdoor type, you like cars, motorcycles, and are keen on those competitive sports where you can win.

ARIES

- Engels, James: You must learn to finish what you start, or you will waste your energies and not have anything to show for your efforts. Your concern for the environment will inspire you to develop a new system for the recycling of plastic.
- Au, Kathy: By nature you are optimistic and you believe that people are basically good. Throughout your life your energy, ambition, and magnetic warmth will take you far. You will become the personal secretary to the President of the United States, and your volume of White House recollections will top the best seller lists for 72 weeks.
- Moesle, Ken: You are unusually healthy and robust. You have a naturally strong constitution and an optimistic outlook on life. You will become the International President of the Kiwanis.
- Cousins, Curtis: You have unusually good coordination and balance. Like all Aries, you are long-limbed and slender.. When Willie Mays retires from the San Francisco Giants, you will replace him in the outfield.
- Whitaker, Gary: You like to have money because you enjoy life to the hilt and many of the material things that money can buy. Your Whitaker Wizard will win the 1978 Indianapolis 500.
- Kozloski, Steve: You are the first sign of the zodiac and a loner by nature. You will migrate to Australia where you will operate a game preserve for the protection of the kangaroo, the koala, and the kinkajou.
- Voorheis, Robby: You are somewhat of a daredevil and will try anything at least once.. Nothing will your nature will solidify until you reach at least 28 years of age. You will become a Grand Prix racer and will achieve the distinction of world's greatest facing driver.
- Hendershott, Tom: In an age when your own age is the thing, opportunities abound for you, but anyone who thinks his trip is the trip is obsessed by his ego.. You will imitate Pat Paulson and become a frequent but unsuccessful candidate for President of the United States..
- Lievense, Helen: You are modest in expecting thanks, but in the end you always receive the loyalty and thanks you deserve. The good deeds you do are usually returned. You will be chosen as the Monroe County Volunteer of the Year.

- Quimby, Bruce: For you, love is the single most important thing. It is an event, a happening, the joy of life and your fulfillment. You will write the LOVE STORY of your generation, which also will not receive an Academy Award.
- Brooks, Tom: You become extremely impatient with parental and other authority. Your romance, like that of the star-crossed lovers ROMEO AND JUKIET, will lead only to disaster unless you acquire self-discipline.
- Shaffer, Randy: You are keen on those competitive sports in which you can win. You are ruled by the fiery god Mars, the god of war. Action first, reflection a long time afterwards, is your motto. You will be charged with 999 technical fouls in the 1976 Olympic Games.
- Grove, Donna: You show a great response to affection. Few others are capable of such sentimentality. You are an incurable optimist about anything from a love affair to a baseball game. Life will reward you.
- Shafer, David: Your agile mind is constantly saturated with new ideas. You leave your inspirations for others to carry out because they move more slowly than you and while waiting for them to get at it, other ideas start collecting in your mind. Your theory for energy will replace that of Albert Einstein.
- Engels, John: Conversation is one of your greatest pleasures. There is nothing you like better than holding forth with your latest ideas..Conversation can bring you into the limelight, which you enjoy. You allow your imagination and often exaggeration to run riot. You will receive the Pulitzer Prize for journalism for your article on "Ping Pong Diplomacy Among the Candy Animals".
- Stowe, Rich: You can be successful as a reformer and pioneer in just about any sphere of life. You will undertake a definitive study on the effects of marijuana on human development for which you will receive the Nobel Prize for physiology.
- Estel, Connie: Approval or encouragement seem to propel you to your best. While you can't respond to any hard driving whip-in-the-hand tactics from others, you have enough energy to be a tireless worker. You will pioneer a program for the American Indian which will greatly improve his status.
- Brabant, Robert: You have a great need to work and plan for your future security. You will amass the world's largest personal fortune, all of which will be deposited in a secret account in Switzerland and you will apply for welfare.

Burchfield, Ruth: The next seven years will hold exciting opportunities for you. People are going to be attracted to you and your concepts. Your syndicated column, Ruth's Recipes, will establish you as the First Homemaker of America.

Ferraro, Donna: Your own self-interests are served if you live up to the best in yourself. Your future appears bright. Your Hobby Shop will become the center of creative activity in Rochester.

Stevenson, Linda: You sometimes make snap judgments and say foolish things without thinking. It is not in your basic nature to be either patient or practical. You will make the annual presentation of the Fickle Foot of Fate Award.

TAURUS

Taurus is interested in anything that makes living more comfortable. Enjoys good food, wonderful deep chairs, soft carpets, a solid, opulent background. Is the perfect host or hostess. Loves dancing and singing and is good at both. Taurus longs for wealth, for security, wants money in the bank. Has a green thumb, is fashion conscious, goes for fine materials, superb cut, real elegance.

TAURUS

- Strobel, Bonnie: There is something of a power complex indicated in your basic make-up. You feel that you know what is best but there are periods when you should exhibit a greater degree of flexibility. You will become the first woman candidate for president, and your campaign speeches will so offend the electorate that you will receive no electoral votes.
- Kristansen, Kaaren: You are one who considers gradual change to be the best course, not the overthrow of all existing patterns. You will become the spokesman for the silent majority and your opposition will cause the defeat of candidate Strobel.
- Cooper, Angela: You are attractive to the opposite sex. You are ruled by Venus, the planet of love. You will become the sex symbol of the American male.
- Previte, Carl: You are impetuous in matters of romance. You will want to rush into marriage. No long courtship or formal engagement, no endless wedding preparations for you--instinctively you feel that this time you are sure. so why wait? You will become engaged many times, before being married.
- Schur, Pat: Yours is the sign of the builder. Whether you build a house, a career, or a relationship, you will construct it on firm foundations. Your architectural designs will make you the Frank Lloyd Wright of your generation.
- Schirano, Steve: You have the patience and the vitality for hard work. You are steadfast and unshaken in adversity, and have the power of quiet persistence in the face of difficulty. You will become the personal advisor to every president during your long and illustrious career of public service.
- Harriff, April: You have a desire to reach maturity and while you feel that youth may be fine, you believe that as the years progress there is apt to be more fun and satisfaction. The future holds the adventure of the unknown as far as you are concerned. The first Broadway musical in which you star will surpass all previous records for number of performances.
- Sherman, Kathy: Your personality is appealing, and you give the impression of being willing to listen. In later years you will find that this will aid you in fulfilling your ambitions. Your Advice to the Troubled column will be syndicated in 439 newspapers and translated into forty different languages.
- Milner, Rex: For you education represents a task. Yet higher education can prove stimulating and bring to the forefront another side of yourself. Your performance as Julius Caesar will win you an Oscar.

Cornell, Gail: You are more of a subjective than an objective observer. You tend to relate to people, places, and events, and your emotions often rule life. You will become the female commentator on the Today show.

Lalen, Jim: Members of the opposite sex stimulate your ESP. It isn't easy to fool you in this area. You know who is best for you but nevertheless often make wrong choices. Your numerous love affairs will surpass those of Casanova.

Boughner, Douglas: In your fantasies you are the warrior who brings home the prize, the man of action. In actuality, you daydream about what should be done. Your 33,000 applications for patents for your inventions will all be rejected because all were infringements on existing patents.

Osborn, Ken: Of all people you are the most dependable. Your approach to life is slow and steady and your goals are most often based on traditional values. You will engineer a tunnel to be built under the English Channel.

Cortash, Mike: People born under the sign of Taurus love food and are naturally inclined to be stocky. Your chain of restaurants called Mike's Massive Mounds of Macaroni will replace Howard Johnson's.

Warlick, David: You have a strong critical ability, and since you like to impart knowledge, you might become a scientist. Your scientific research will resolve the world's hunger problem.

Englert, Roy: You like sports and the more active the better. But you prefer to be right in the middle than on the sidelines. You prefer team sports to solitary ones. You will try out and be accepted for the New York Jets football team.

Gruendike, Greg: You are an out of doors person and don't really feel well unless you have done something invigorating. Your environmental policies will trigger your appointment as Secretary of the Interior.

Lewis, Barbara: Your approach to life is slow and steady. Picnics delight you. Your love for the outdoors and for gentle games will cause you to become playground director for Hubbell Park.

Rose, Pat Mae: When Taurus people make up their minds, it takes a great deal to change them. Your book on etiquette, called ROSE'S RULES OF RIGIDITY, will replace Emily Post as the guideline for social conduct.

Grattan, Mary: Most of the time you are your easy-going self. Your wit is subtle and your smile winning, and you are far less reserved than you may seem at first meeting. You will win the Miss Kodak Congeniality Award.

Ideman, Jerry Jo: You love beauty and are most happy in harmonious surroundings. Taureans love beauty and are especially inclined towards the arts. Your special line of cocktail dresses will be featured in salons across the country..

Kohlmann, Linda: You have an excellent eye for color. Any advice you give on decorating is well worth listening to. You will write a column called Kohlmann's Kosy Kitchens for House Beautiful magazine.

Pryor, Martin: It may take you a while to get to know a person, but the friendships you form are usually lasting. You never drop people or let sudden whims shake the foundation of your friendships. You will become the national leader of the Boy Scouts of America.

Hartung, John: The Taurus male is dependable and steadfast. He is unusually attractive in a strong silent way. You will become the middleweight champion of the world.

GEMINI

Gemini is interested in movement and enjoys moving around from one place, from one person, one interest to another. Is fascinated by trains, boats, planes, enjoys high speed driving. Loves children after the baby stage. Has a gift for selling things, ideas and enjoys it.

GEMINI

Bennett, Pauline: You have knack for wearing clothes. You can charm your way in or out of any situation. You have an exciting future as the head of the Powers Model Agency.

DeCroce, Renee: You have to overcome a tendency to be too frivolous and too flirtatious. You will have money and romance when you marry Aristotle Onassis the Second.

Terulli, Ann: You will bypass the usual and concentrate on the unusual. You could be regarded as a bit far-out. You will found a school of contemplative philosophy whose motto is "Trauma Today, Tranquillity Tomorrow".

Carr, Dan: Your aspirations are beyond the present and, more than most, you are aware of the future. The future for you is not something abstract, but something solid. You will become the head DJ of WBBF.

Mitchell, Bill: You are perceptive and your curiosity often gets you into difficulties. You want to penetrate mysteries. Your theories on the possible alterations of the human mental processes will become the basis of contemporary abnormal psychology.

Beale, Dick: You delight in vacations; especially with members of the opposite sex. You will establish the record for absenteeism from your job.

Bird, Phil: You have a lot of nervous energy. This restlessness needs a creative outlet. Paint, write, take notes, or keep a diary. Your illustrated journal, BIRD'S BEASTIES, will become a sensational best seller.

Palumbo, Kathy: You relate to others. You assume others are also concerned and ready to do something about it. You are idealistic. For a lifetime of dedicated service to humanitarian projects you will be awarded the Freedom Award by the President of the United States.

Wilkins, Bruce: You are the freedom-loving type and want to enjoy your youth without any strings attached. You are in love with love, telling yourself that it must be love that makes you feel so happy one moment and so depressed the next. You enjoy thinking of love, of how much you are loved.

Pagano, Rene: In fashion you are a born pace-setter. You have a keen sense of what's in and you like clothes that are fun and a bit on the bold or bright side. You have a special weakness for the far-out and for the slightly wild. Your boutique, which sells only your original designs, appeals especially to the Jet Set.

Spacher, Marilyn: You are occasionally headstrong and resent authority. You balk at being told what to do, since you would rather figure it out for yourself. You will become the replacement for the actress on the TV ad saying, "Mother, I'd rather do it myself."

- Gibbs, Julie: You like to have many friends. It is as easy for you to strike up a casual acquaintance as it is to keep a close friend. The same warmth and generous spirit spread to both. You will run a successful dating service.
- Davis, Jeffrey: You are exceptionally generous and honest. Someone to care about definitely brings out the best in your nature. You will become a banker, and will succeed David Rockefeller as president of the Chase National Bank.
- Kowalik, Karen: Where love is concerned, your subconscious attitude is apt to be domesticity. For you, love is a settling down period, showing that you possess many qualities of maturity. You will win $25,000 in the Betty Crocker Bake-off with your recipe for Kowalik's Kwickies.
- Arva, Ron: You have two distinct natures. You have a natural bright mind and a gay, fun-loving personality. You are both detached and deeply dependent on affection. You will become an orthodontist, serving the first family.
- Prevost, Dawn: You like a lot of color and excitement, and have the ability to turn whatever you do into a real happening. Your troupe of dancers will create new routines to be taught at the American School of Dance.
- McCall, Charlene: Only occasionally does a gemini become so preoccupied with her health that she becomes a hypochondriac. You will become a pharmacist, owning and operating McCall's Magical Mystery Tour.
- Davis, Janet: In dress you are always well turned out; your appearance is tidy and everything matches. You will be named to the list of best dressed women for ten successive years.
- Klein, Sue: Gemini females prefer team swimming, hockey, bowling, and tennis. They are energetic and agile, and play a thinking game as well as a strong one. You will become the women's professional tennis champion.
- Bird, Jan: You are easy-going and your manners are excellent. No one has better tact and you know how to please by dropping a compliment or doing a favor. You will become public relations advisor for Ralph Nader.
- Ellis, Stephen: Gemini males have a weakness for good sport cars, sports equipment, and fast females. You will become the Playboy of the Western World.
- Maine, Richard: Your romantic nature is the most intense of any of the signs. This comes naturally since your ruling planet is Venus. Your life will be determined by a pretty face.
- O'Brien, Dennis: You are an interesting and good-humored person to know. Your joy of living is tremendous. You will operate a drag strip known as Denny's Demented Dragsters.

CANCER

Cancerians are interested in their families and are home builders par excellence. Yet they love to travel, to see the world. They have a gift for making friends, though they really prefer their childhood friends. But we others take to them rapidly, thanks to their sympathy with our worries.

CANCER

- Moore, Thomas: Those under your sign very often recognize the future wife at first sight, and seldom waver in the matter. Though you rarely confide your intentions until everything is practically arranged, you will be graduated on June 26 and married on June 27.
- Calvete, Thomas: You would have more fun if you could relax and be more spontaneous. You have the ability and charm to be a find host. You will become the social czar of Washington D.C. and your parties will dominate Washington social life.
- Kelly, Ann: You seem inhibited but are really very affectionate. Yours is a cool aloofness and a special kind of charm. You will become hostess on the first TWA passenger flight to the moon.
- Burke, Steve: You love to play pranks and may get into minor troubles from time to time. You are more likely than others to chafe at authority. You will help solve the pollution problem by designing a self-destruct beer bottle.
- Allen, Kathy: Your magnetism and vitality draw others to you, especially those who are more shy and reserved. You will develop a sensitivity training system which will guarantee to make ectroverts out of introverts.
- Erickson, Durwyn: You have one particular blind spot which sometimes impedes success in life. It is the fact that you are only aware of yourself and your own particular desires. You will become the Andy Warhols of your generation and your ipic film will be titled Erickson's Ego, which is unique in that it has only one line of dialogue, "I am number one."
- Sloey, Debbie: Your natural good looks, clear complexion, and shining hair give you the glowing appearance of good health. Your unique vocal style will bring you fame as the successor to Joan Baez.
- Wheeler, Cathy: You are energetic and ambitious, and usually successful in anything you undertake. You tackle any job with enthusiasm. Your chain of gaseterias will make you one of the world's wealthiest women.
- Whitenack, Ramona: You are the only one who is not fully convinced of your worth, for underneath you are full of self-doubts. When you awake to your own potential you will successfully compete in the Miss America contest of 1974.
- Proctor, Leo: Your problem may be one of temperament. Strong shifts of mood can affect the quality of your work and you sometimes balk at authority. You will join the navy, and set a record for days spent in the brig.

- Anderson Christine: You are not as domestic as some of the other signs, and you are away from home more than others. But you always want to return to home base and you are deeply attached to your family. You will be a stewardess on a trans-Atlantic supersonic jet.
- O'Marra, Thomas: One thing you probably are is sensitive. You like to entertain, preferably small groups. Loud noisy parties frighten you. You will run a small select discotheque known as Tom's Tempting Teasers.
- Carlisle, Timothy: Of all the signs, yours is the most mystic. Your intuition is keen and you need someone to confide in and care about, You will undoubtedly become a Madison Avenue public relations and market specialist.
- Lavell, Dan: You love the out of doors, but you are not particularly big on team sports. Your transportation service, called Lavell's Lazy Lllamas, will set back the Occidental awakening by 500 years.
- Wicks, Arthur: Because you an emotional person, you tend to dramatize small things. Criticism of any kind can make you climb into your shell. Your dissertation on "Menial Mental Manipulations" will sell twenty-four copies.
- Rossiter, Carolyn: It would be hard to imagine you without some romantic attachments, for you are affectionate, loyal, and intensely emotional. You will go to any length to please the person you are with. A product from your Parisian perfume factory will become the number one best seller.
- De Graves, Stephen: You are so impressionable that you tend to take on the moods, personal traits, and opinions of your associate. You will raise prize chameleons which will solve the ecological problems of the world.
- Hoppe, David: Underneath your apparently shy nature, you long for admiration, and need and want a pat on the back more than the other signs. What you most lack is a strong sense of self-confidence. You will retire to the caves of Crete, where people will come to consult Hoppe the Hermit.
- Chapell, Nancy: From time to time you may feel sorry for yourself. It is your tendency to exaggerate small slights. You will become a dancing teacher in the Arthur Murray Studios, specializing in the Viennese Waltz.
- Pierce, Charles: Cancer males appear to be mild-mannered but have a great deal of get-up-and-go when motivated. Your moon significator is associated with the public. You will become public relations director for the North Chili Tourist Bureau.

Sullivan, Janice: You are impressionable and falter in taking definite action. Underneath you are dying for your own place in the sun and need to be appreciated and applauded. You will become a famous medium, consulted by the great and the near-great.

Trapp, David: Persons born under your sign are successful in commerce and industry. You instinctively know the ways of the world. This instinct, combined with a good education, could bring the world to your door.

LEO

Leonians are interested in big business, far-reaching projects, and dislike detailed or menial jobs. They need warmth, big fires plus central heating and are happy when the sun shines on a beach, on golden sands. The girls love furs, big chunky jewelry, big bottles of perfume. The men like good soap, toilet waters. Few Leonians are punctual, fewer have a sense of time.

LEO

McDanel, Bruce: You make a delightful date. You have a proud personality and great romantic appeal, but you could be the type who takes one girl to a party and then flirts with another. You will run an escort bureau called Bruce's Bods.

Connors, Maureen: You are caring and clever. You like all kinds of activities and are a good sport. You will earn a black belt and open a self-defense studio called Connors' Karate.

Delesky, Beth: Your health is naturally good and you take good care of yourself. You will run a health spa called Oh, Man!

Drake, Merle: You are proud of where you live and of your family. You are loving and loyal, and no one sticks up more strongly for other family members. You will revive the concept of the patriarchal society.

Sullivan, Patricia: Your joy of living is tremendous. You are also an idealist. You look for the good in everyone and would rather be considered gullible than suspicious.

Belmore, Cliff: You are happy-go-lucky and instinctively hate to save or think about security. You will become the best customer Household Finance Company ever had.

Foley, James: Your constitution is likely to be rugged. You have great reserves of energy. The only thing that would be a real danger to your health is overdoing. You will run a home for retired gun runners.

Williams, Mark: Authorities must earn your respect. You do not admire someone merely because he is in an authoritative position. Your tendency is to want to do things your own way. You will become Chief of police of Town Pump.

Cardillo, Paul: Leo has one particular blind spot which sometimes impedes his success in life. This is the fact that he is only aware of himself and his own particular desires. You will author your version of THE SELF-MADE MAN, which will be nominated for Boring Book of the Month.

Galitano, Roseann: Sometimes you seem to be a real loner, but your inner nature is warm and responsive. Beneath your public face is a sense of humor that is light and frivolous. You will become a script writer for the TV show "All in the Family."

Maysick, Doug: You must be wary about taking the easy way out. By just getting by, you are cheating yourself. If you apply yourself, you will excel in whatever your choose to do.

Selover, Shelby: You have more power than does the average person.
You have the ability to sway the opposite sex.
You will become Mrs. America of 1978.

Herzog, Lawrence: You are the type about whom others say, "It takes a while to get to know him." Your real warmth emerges only when you feel confident. You will succeed J. Edgar Hoover as head of the FBI.

Conrad, Yvonne: You will become the model for the T. V. Commercial for Virginia Slims and the number one enemy of the Women's Liberation Movement.

VIRGO

Virgo is interested in hygiene, cleanliness. She loves calorie charts, slimming charts, a full medicine chest, vitamin pills, health foods. Loves a good gossip. Likes clubs, societies of a humanitarian nature, nursing and teaching, classical music, science, fiction, fine needlework, knitting, and dressmaking.

VIRGO

- Chapin, Richard: Money, work, responsibility, industriousness--these are some of the aspects which mark you. You analyze and discover ways and means of getting what you desire. You will become head of the drafting department at RIT.
- Pepper, William: You conquer adverse circumstances and make handicaps contribute to your success. You will become a major stockholder in the world's largest corporation. You will join the ranks of those Americans who completely evade the payment of income taxes.
- Arlidge, Sue: You enjoy conversation and the exchange of ideas excites and stimulates you. Your ability at the game of Old Maid indicates your future success in this field.
- Stotts, Debbie: Virgos are good-looking types with features that are fine and regular. Virgo females are often exceptionally beautiful and rather regal. You will become the first American to marry into British royalty.
- Gugel, Joe: You have natural good health and an exceptionally strong body. You move with power and work with energy, and you rarely get ill. You will become the president's advisor for physical fitness.
- Freestone, John: Many careers are suited to your Virgo nature. Anything with a touch of idealism is a natural. You will be the first member of the Peace Corps to be stationed in the People's Republic of China.
- Dorn, Dan: Your aim is to be at the top--in love, in school, and in whatever you do. You set high goals for yourself. You will become vice-president of the Second National Bank.
- Hrankowski, Henry: You are one of the most thoughtful signs. You live by the rule that actions speak louder than words. You will defeat the Soviet chess champion in international competition.
- Drexel, Douglas: You want to be a part of your time. You are not one who would find it romantic to live in a garret. You will operate the Dynamic Dynels by Doug Salon, specializing in teased wigs.
- McMenemy, Kathie: You are adventurous and you want to be where the action is. Although being daring can be considered an asset, you often take unnecessary chances. You will become a croupier in Las Vegas.
- Madigan, Eileen: Perhaps no other sign is as misunderstood as yours. You give the impression of perhaps not having a care in the world. You will enjoy life in some sort of Shangri-La.

Griffin, Sue: You like to flirt and are apt to have a few romantic flings before deciding on The One. You will become the most popular designer of wedding bouquets in Rochester.

Liebeck, Sue: You are sometimes reserved and you like a quiet, well-ordered life, but you are not really shy. You will become the leader of the Back to the Earth movement, taking your followers to the Aborigine area of Australia.

LIBRA

Librans are interested in everything and everyone--good looking, elegant, amusing. They function best in any kind of partnership--at business, in love, in living. They love parties, are social to a high degree, shine where there are soft lights, sweet music. Born diplomat they dislike strife and are good at peace making. Most of them are artists in human relationships. They know how to mix people--for business, for a party, for their own personal good.

LIBRA

- Moriarty, Marianne: You are highly emotional and tend to display extremes of temperament. You can really raise a storm when you reach the boiling point. You will replace Spiro Agnew as the darling of the Silent Majority.
- Soper, Stan: You can become quite proficient in any sport that gains your interest, and when strongly influenced by Mars, you can become quite aggressive in team sports. You will become a member of the New York Mets, and be fined $5,000 for making threatening gestures at critics in the stands.
- MacAvoy, Kathy: People will tell you that Libra is all love and beauty and sweetness and light. You will be elected Mother of the year in 1996, despite the violent protest of the Zero Population Growth group, which objects strongly to your 25 children.
- Dimor, Louise: A tactful and forgiving nature is your strength. You have genuine charm and your motto is "Peace at all costs." Your diplomatic efforts will finally bring peace to the Middle East, for which success you will be honored by having your statue placed in Churchville Park.
- Boe, Jackie: The motto of your sign is "Make love, not war." You will lead an international march for peace that will take you around the globe in 365 days.
- Davis, Neil: You hate to argue; you'd rather switch than fight. You will become head of Madison Avenue's most successful advertising firm, DAVIS, DAVIS, DAVIS and DAVIS.
- Sherlock, Linda: You are tactful and always make a very good impression on those you meet for the first time. You are for the most part a well-balanced person. You will become the first woman to referee basketball At Madison Square Garden.
- Storie, Dave: Libra invented romance and you refine it to an art. You use every trick with casual ease and seldom fail to get the girl. You will write a best-seller titled EVERYTHING YOU ALWAYS WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT GIRLS BUT WERE AFRAID TO ASK.
- Ginovsky, Tom: There is a tendency toward fickleness in Libra men which can't be denied. Like all Libra men, you have an impulse to size up every woman, and get love and friendship hopelessly confused. You will be the perennial bachelor of your class.
- Culp, Janelle: You shine in applying homey touches to commercial themes. Your television commercial for Culprit's Cream Puffs will cause millions of Americans to seek refuge in their local movie theater.

- Kelly, Barb: Most Libra girls work both before and after marriage. They seek cash for the lovely things it can buy. They love beautiful clothes and expensive perfumes. You will become the president of Naum Brothers, which will open world-wide branches..
- Davis, Mark: You give plenty of free advice. You have the perfect solution for all problems and an answer for every question you are asked. You will appear on the television quiz show "Stuff and Nonsense" and will win 64¢ for your knowledge.
- Liebeck, Joe: You won't lose interest in the opposite sex until you're at least ninety. The subject will never bore you, even if it's only to speculate. At the age of 85, you will marry a twenty year old beauty queen.
- Brown, Larry: You are an earth sign and this influences your choices.. You prefer greens and browns. You will become Secretary of Agriculture, and be the first man holding this title to know anything about farming.
- Maciag, Mike: Libra males might be drawn to investment and banking circles, and because they have such convincing ways they make excellent salesmen. Your used car lot, known as Mike's Metal Monsters, will be famous throughout the nation.
- Lucas, Norma: You have the so-called golden touch and are financially lucky. This is fortunate because yours is an extravagant sign. You yearn for luxury, spend liberally, and are a generous giver. You will win the New York State lottery and spend the rest of your life in unearned leisure.
- Kessler, Ruth: You have the capacity for keep, lasting friendship, but you must curb your temper and your tongue, and your tendency to tell other people what to do. Your rock trio called the Three T's will record the worst record of the year, chosen by the Playboy.
- Butler, Kathryn: Your personality is baffling on the one hand and one of the most magnetic on the other. People are drawn to you, and once you know a person well, you are capable of the closest and most meaningful kind of relationship. You will become permanent trouble shooter for the Security Council of the United Nations.
- Brewer, Barbara: Your vitality, basic optimism, and good humor draw others to you like a magnet. You have many friends and you rarely lose a friend. You will become the chief of protocol of the White House.
- Dzuiba, Joyce: Although you have tact and understanding, you are frustrated and rejected, but if you marry a Capricorn like John Johnson, you will take the if out of any relationship.

SCORPIO

Scorponians are interested in anything secret and mysterious-- sex, birth, death, reincarnation. They long for fame and respect and work for it. In their youth many enjoy being a femme fatale or a Casanova. Fully grown up, they tend to overwork and overplay. A Scorponian housewife is fanatical in her cleaning, polishing, sweeping. Keeping ordinary things of life a secret is one of Scorpio's foibles; being jealous and possessive is a bigger one.

SCORPIO

- Godden, Tracy: You love secrecy. With a charm as sleek as satin, you can pry one's innermost secrets from him. With the code name of 003, you will become the feminist version of James Bond. Your movies will prove that whatever Tracy wants, Tracy gets.
- Schwalm, Maldwyn: Your poised surface calm is carefully designed to hide the boiling inner nature. You are often accused of extreme sentimentality and overt expression of feelings. You will operate a boutique called Maldwyn's Mannekins, specializing in unisex clothes.
- Berkemeier, Kevin: You are determined to be successful in everything you undertake, so if you become interested in sports, you are never content until you are proficient. You will surpass Arnold Palmer's record of four wins at the Master's Tournament at Augusta, Georgia.
- Cromeey, Fred: Your type never wavers. Whatever the Scorpio's hand finds to do, is done with energy. When you are bad, you are thoroughly bad. You will be the Gambling King of New York State when betting is finally legalized.
- Duke, George: Your sun gives you a firm determined and reserved individuality with an inclination to be dignified and proud. You will become Secretary of State in the cabinet of President Gustavson.
- Schmidt, Debbi: If you learn not to trust to luck, but rather to use your noble impulses to help others, you will find that you will get what you want with a bonus of friendship and pleasure thrown in. Your designs will make the United States the center of the fashion world.
- Becker, Dave: You are assured a political or professional success.. You are the gentlest and most adaptable of the Scorpions. You will become principal of the high school and will become bald by the age of twenty-five.
- Kaiser, Robert: You have to be careful in your romantic involvement, for you can become obsessed with the idea of love itself, forgetting that many practical things have to be talked about if it's to lead to marriage. You will neglect to remember your wedding day and will leave your bride stranded at the altar.
- Kressman, Karen: You can be very jealous and possessive. The greater the love, the more this seems to come out.
- Fox, David: You have a tendency to operate from behind the scenes. People under your sign have earned the reputation of being quite slippery in financial dealings with other people. You will become the president of Security Trust Company, and under your leadership the bank will initiate secret accounts in the United States for Swiss citizens.

Richardson, Fancy: The Scorpio female is known as a charmer. It is easy for her to twist almost any male around her finger and it is hard to imagine her without a romantic interest. You will operate a computerized dating bureau which will match your former beaux with prospective mates.

Jacobs, Mary Ellen: You are courageous and determined. You are also tender and sensitive to the needs of others. No one has a greater sense of purpose than you, and no one will work harder toward a goal. Your designs will revolutionize the packing industry and lead you to the presidency of the Container Corporation of America.

McElver, John: Scorpio is a water sign and you have a special feeling about the sea. You will be the first man to circumnavigate the world alone in a twenty-foot sailboat..

Willison, Anne: The Scorpio female has intriguing good looks that men gravitate toward and other girls envy. A scorpio female is an extremely jealous type.

Defoe, Diane: Scorpio females are among the best athletic competitors. They combine strength and agility, with good timing and a sense of daring. You will operate a special stable called Diane's Dancers, where you will train circus horses.

SAGITTARIUS

Sagittarians are interested in travelling, ready--at least in their minds--to go anywhere at any time. Sports appeal to you. Many of you have an affinity with horses, dogs, and enjoy races. You are great talkers, inclined to tell others what to do. Always keen on adventure, a gamble, a physical or financial risk beckons to you. Many of you learn for the pure sake of knowledge. Most of you are impatient and cannot bear waiting.

SAGGITARIUS

- Loftus, David: You have strong convictions and the courage to stand up for them. You sometimes make snap judgments and say foolish things. You will lead a great migration to Canada to start a communal settlement at Hudson Bay.
- Pakis, Mike: Your mind is quick and brimful of ideas. You naturally do well in school even though you aren't a grind or a dedicated scholar. You will originate a new concept called "Instant Architecture" which will rid the American cities of the problem of the ghetto.
- Curley, Craig: You delight in parties, both giving and going to them.. You enjoy all kinds from big noisy bashes to small friendly gatherings. You will become known as the Host with the Most.
- Alves, Mardell: Your wit is subtle and your smile winning. You are far less reserved than you may seem at first meeting. Your smile will become famous as the symbol of Snowy White tooth paste.
- Goldzweig, Sharon: You have a natural executive ability. You know how to handle people and make decisions. You will be declared the Avon Lady of the Year, 1975.
- Ives, David: You are a loyal friend and you will do a good turn for anyone who has befriended you. You long secretly for recognition and the limelight. Your Broadway debut will be the highlight of the New York theatrical season.
- Cervelloni, Paul: Because you are a fire sign, you tend to dramatize everything. You do not like being told what to do, and can take criticism only if it is dished out with love and tact. As police chief of the city of Rochester, you will develop a parking ticket which is guaranteed not to offend the recipient.
- Walker, Steve: Though you have a quick smile and a ready sense of humor, you are not as easy going as you seem. Your complex temperament only makes you a more intriguing person to know.
- Leavy, Greg: You have an abundant supply of mental energy and have a vivid creative imagination. You will reopen the Lyric Theater.
- Gould, Jim: You are an out of doors person and you can't feel really well unless you have taken a brisk walk or done something invigorating with your body. Your firm, Gould's Guano Gatherers, will become the world's leader in the production and sale of natural fertilizer.
- Zimmerman, Mark: Your philosophy is one of action. You could be in too much of a hurry, substituting showmanship for hard core knowledge. Your version of THE SENSUOUS MAN will be a best seller of the seventies.

Comella, Jerry: Your life style is spontaneous rather than well thought out. Your aim is happiness, not security. You will become head of the New York Hell's Angels.

Gage, Terry: Because you are a fire sign, you tend to dramatize things. Sometimes you even create problems for yourself. That is why you need warm sympathetic friends and family. You are not as easy-going as you seem. You will work with a volunteer ambulance corps, saving many lives.

Weston, Valerie: You will do best in the long run if you learn not to scatter your energies over too wide a field. Your single-mindedness will cause you to break the bank at Las Vegas.

Sardina, Mary Ann: You are happy-go-lucky and instinctively hate to save or think about security. You take more chances than the more cautious signs. You will make your first million investing in the stock market.

CAPRICORN

Capricornians are interested in their jobs and in other people's jobs, how work is done, where and why. Many are in love with their careers and prestige and recognition mean a lot to them. Saving comes naturally and budgeting is child's play. They are good dancers and enjoy open air life, gardening and water sports. They don't mind cold and fatigue. They rarely make enemies. Even people who don't take to them acknowledge their related charm and their sense of humor.

CAPRICORN

- Gates, Debbie: You are not only generous but you are especially concerned with the needs of anyone you feel underprivileged. You will originate the annual Hike for Humanity which will provide medical assistance for underdeveloped areas of the world.
- Brugger, Glenn: You are a natural fighter and you have a strongly social nature. Your favorite sports demand vitality and strength.. You will use this excessive vitality to become the captain of the American Ping Pong Team which will host a meet with a team from Red China..
- Betteridge, Diane: You like to live in a restful agreeable atmosphere. Irrational or emotional behaviour annoys you. You will lead a successful drive to have Churchville declared a national historical site, with its main street remaining architecturally intact for posterity.
- Nugent, Jean: You are extremely fair and just, and you sympathize with anyone who is troubled or oppressed. You will become a much sought after marriage counselor.
- Rose, Patricia Lynn: In clothes you love elegance, soft fabrics, and rich colors.. You wear clothes well and are concerned with the total look of your outfit. Your clothes will set the fashion trend for the eighties.
- Behage, Larry: Parties are your thing. You love to give them or go to them, and the more people, the merrier. You will be known for giving the longest party on record, lasting sixty-four years.
- Pisaro, Roger: Your charm is based on an underlying sense of mystery. You are fascinated by the studies of the occult, meditation, mystical music, and astrology. You will become famous as the male version of Jeanne Dixon in the seventies.
- Butler, Dave: Capricorn males have a strong urge to explore and add a dramatic flair to whatever they do. Your book, Dave's Dictionary of Diversions, will bring you fame and fortune.
- Johnson, John: You display a quiet confidence, also a restlessness. You are not satisfied with status quo. Your eyes are on the future. You will become the director of the Strasenberg Planetarium.

AQUARIUS

Aquarians are interested in any kind of progress, be it political, humanitarian, or artistic. They are the first to try out new methods, labor saving devices, and mechanical aids to living. Freedom for all is their motto. To make a better world for everyone through knowledge education, and training is the Aquarian aim. Good talkers, they broaden our horizons and drive us crazy by being unpunctual, absent-minded, and forgetful. The girl of the sign has an individual style of dressing. She may create a fashion and certainly wears things differently.

AQUARIUS

- Barry, Joan: You are an ideal Girl Friday. Many career-minded Aquarius women make their mark in the professional world. Since you like to travel, you will become private secretary to the president of the Hertz Rent-A-Car company.
- Zuber, Kim: You love the country. Picnics and walks in the woods delight you. You enjoy any kind of outdoor beauty. Your experimentation with hybrid grain will produce a cereal food which will solve the problems of the starving millions of the world.
- Monkhern, Scott: You are thorough and methodical and your decisions are made by thinking rather than by feeling. You are reserved and like a quiet and well-ordered life. You will become a world-reknown guru, teaching in the Ann Scott Terulli school of philosophy.
- Sittig, Penny: Devotion and loyalty are strong in your nature. You have to know and examine all the facts before you take up a cause. You will become permanent pageant chairman of the Monroe County Harvest Queen competition.
- Powell, Paul: You are one of the most intense of any of the signs. Sometimes you seem self-contained, but underneath your apparent calm are seething and contradictory depths. You will become a lawyer specializing in the defense of those accused of participation in radical causes.
- Robbins, Jane: There is nothing simple about knowing you. It is not in your nature to reveal yourself completely. You are honest and lay your cards on the table, but you never quite lay out all of them. You always keep some fact, some surprising characteristic in reserve. You will startle everyone by your success in the lead role in Oh Calcutta.
- Morris, Paula: You are sensitive, sometimes baffling, yet you are a most dynamic person. You have a strong sense of duty and always accomplish a lot in spite of yourself. You will become the first female to win a demolition derby.
- Johnson, Gary: You are reliable and can always be counted on. You are somewhat conservative but never narrow or straight-laced. You will become the first successful conservative party candidate to be elected.
- Steinkirchner, Mary: You are amorous and devoted to each person you are drawn to. Though somewhat fickle, you are only involved with one at a time. You will beat Liz Taylor's record for many marriages.

- Clement, Dan: You show a strong aptitude for the arts and have a vivid and creative imagination. You will become director of the Albright Gallery of Art in Buffalo.
- Tyner, Doug: You love the out of doors and Nature more than any other sign. You enjoy the pleasure of hunting in the woods or a slightly dangerous ride on a skimobile. You will become a guide in the Adirondack Preserve.
- De Smit, Stephen: Sometimes you seem a little unconventional, since you never quite follow the crowd. You will become the editor of the North Chili Inkwaster, a newspaper depending on its accuracy of hindsight.
- MacPherson, Beth: Aquarian females have winning smiles, and their eyes are usually their outstanding feature. You will invent a new kind of eye make-up known as MacPherson's Miraculous Mascara.
- Sittig, John: You are stronger than you seem. In spite of a build likely to be on the slight side, you have an abundance of energy. You will be the winner of the weight lifting event of the 1976 Olympics.
- Steedman, Greg: You are not an easy person to get to know. Even though you are pleasant and amiable at a first meeting, your deeper qualities come to the fore only after you have warmed to a person. Your syndicated series on "Fifty Fabulous Friendships" will be translated into forty-eight foreign languages including Eskimo and Swahili.

PISCES

Pisces subjects are interested in their own feelings, in dreams and sensations, in religion and myths. Poetry, the music of words carries them away. So does blues music. Ghost stories send pleasant shivers down their spines and some have encounters with ghosts. They love lucky charms and half believe in them. Abandoned kittens, stray puppies, birds fallen from their nests find a refuge with the girl of the sign, who has a way with small, helpless creatures. They wonder what the future will bring--hoping for something wonderful, fearing some disaster.